

CEC Presentation

March 14, 2007

St. Claude, Manitoba

Number of Hogs in Manitoba

1996

3.2million

2001

5.4million

2006

8.63 million

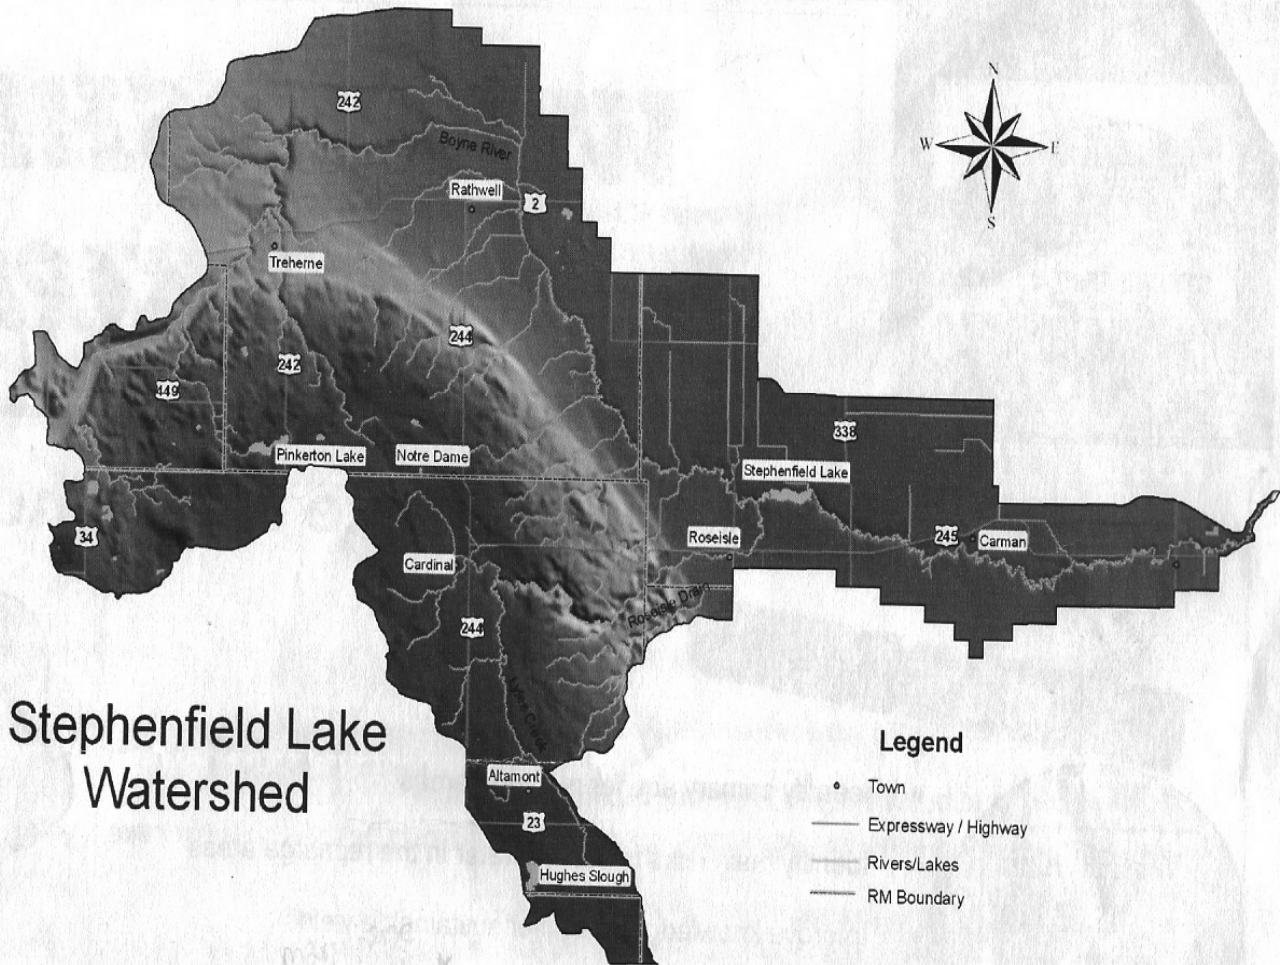

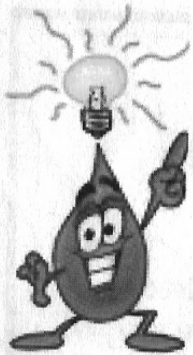

Stephenfield Lake & Dam

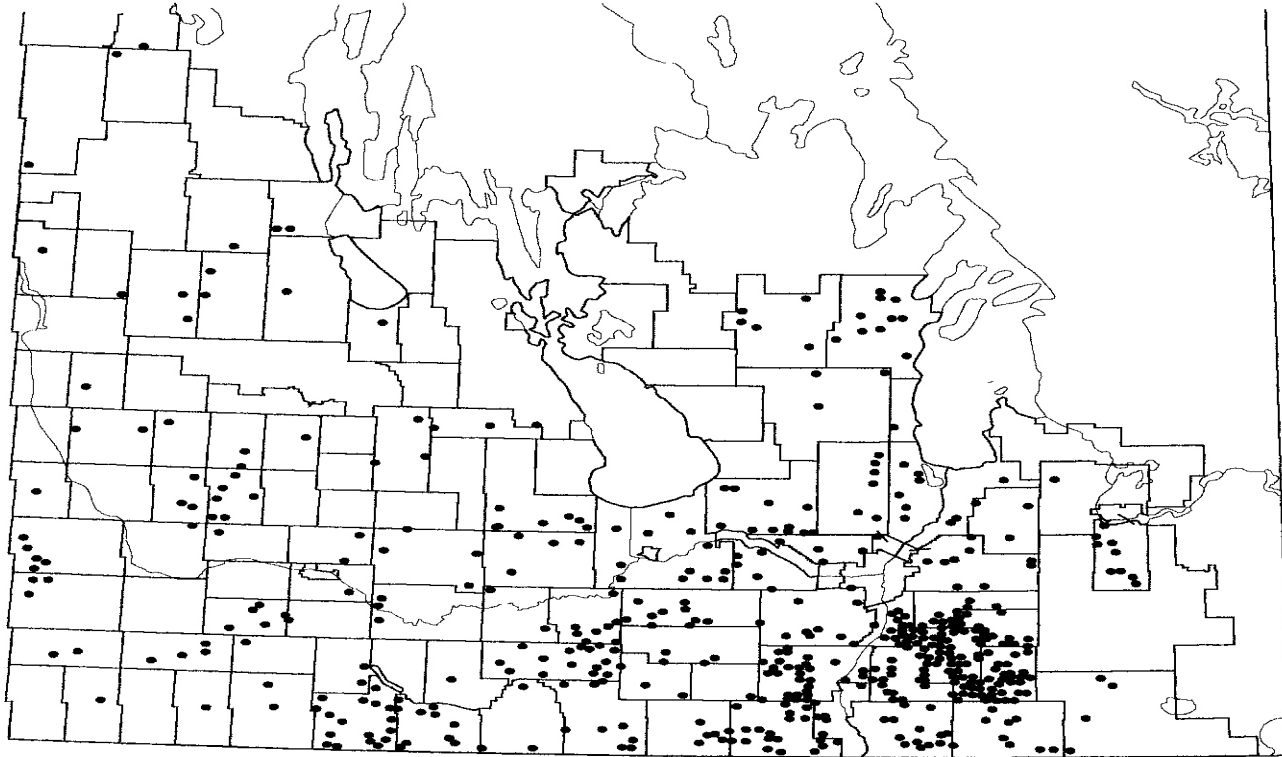

Stephenfield Lake Watershed

- Legend
- Town
 - Expressway / Highway
 - Rivers/Lakes
 - - - RM Boundary

Appendix II

Location of Permitted Manure Storage Facilities April 2006

Source: Manitoba Conservation

The Air Freshener Industry is up $600 million since 2003

projects 2007 sales to hit $1.72 billion

40 percent of people who buy air products did not start buying these products until six years ago

Source: Kline & Company, New (USA Market)

ARDI Funding to the Pork Industry between 1998 – 2006

$ 3,278.187.28

26% ($862,258.28) went to manure management/
odour related research here in Manitoba

74% went to hog feeding, hog health,
and other hog projects to profit the industry

Government contributions Manitoba Livestock Manure
Management Initiatives - nearly $1Million

...there were 5.4 million hogs here in 2000 when the Province began to look at the regulatory framework for the Industry.

source: An Examination of the Environmental Sustainability of the Hog Industry in Manitoba. Conservation Manitoba 2006)

There is a lot of catching up to do.

MINIMAL DISEASE CONTROL PROGRAM
NO ADMITTANCE
DO NOT PASS
BEYOND THIS POINT

Number of Projects stopped at RM level through Public Hearing process
since 1996:

7

(estimate based on memory of residents)

Number of Projects successfully established in Manitoba:

1,400

(source: Manitoba Pork Council)

Government of Manitoba Insiders

Peter Mah: Intergovernmental Affairs

Director of Community Planning (former)

Andrew Dickenson: MAFRI

Eastern District TRC Coordinator (former)

Gary Plohman: MAFRI

TRC Coordinator (current)

Employed by Manitoba Pork Industry

Peter Mah: Manitoba Pork Council

Public Relations & Sustainable Development (current)

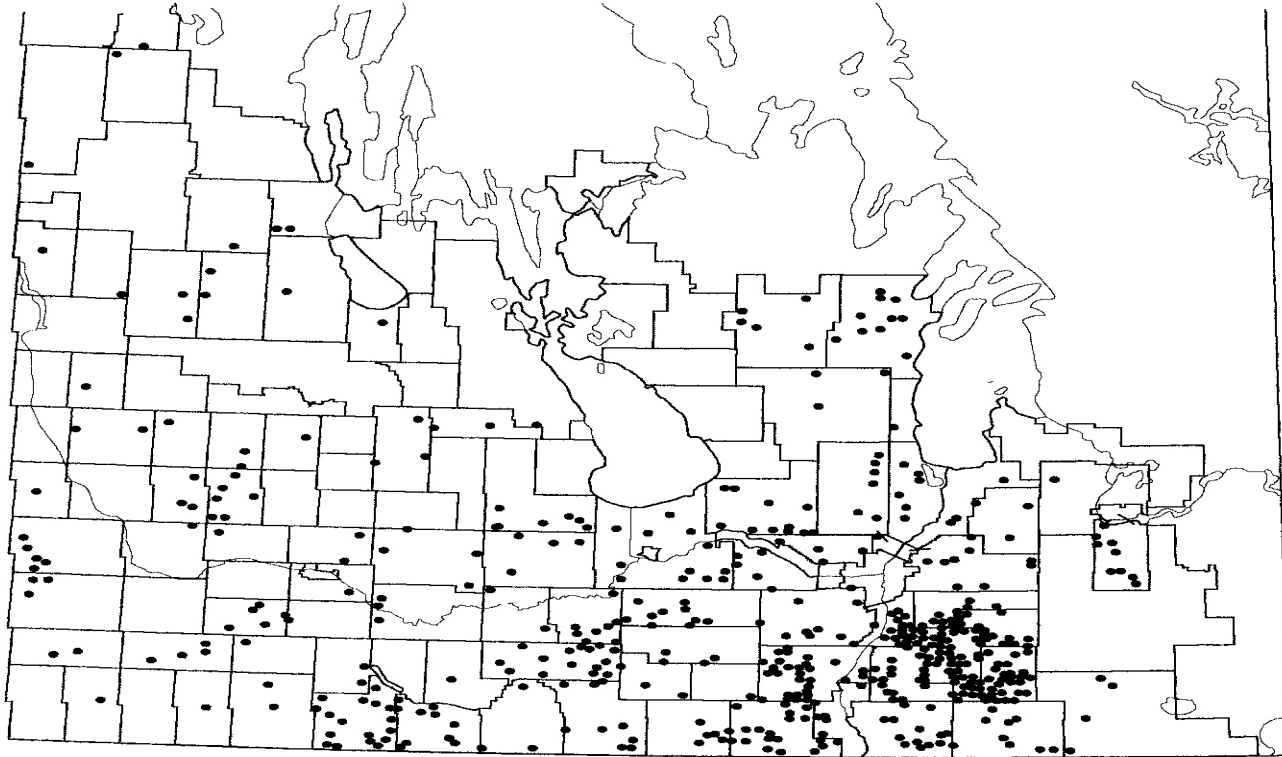

Andrew Dickenson: Manitoba Pork Council

General Manager (current)

Gary Plohman: Elite Swine (former)

Appendix II

Location of Permitted Manure Storage Facilities April 2006

Source: Manitoba Conservation

